HOLY WEEK PREPARATIONS

Holy Week is still a week away. Trinity's fifth-graders already are making preparations.

This past week, the class mixed, rolled out, cut and baked unleavened bread for the Passover, coming on Holy Thursday.

"Don't forget, we made crosses on the bread, too," one fifth-grader shared. "We also got to eat a piece."

It's just a taste of what's to come.

"Holy Week is a huge deal, more than I can imagine," a fifth-grader shared.

"It's more than my little brain can handle," another fifth-grader chimed in.

Holy Week – it's a roller-coaster ride of events.

"Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday are so exciting, but Holy Thursday and Good Friday are hard to take and understand," a fifth-grader shared.

This group of fifth-graders walks by faith. "I'm not afraid to stand my ground and say what I believe," a fifth grader said. "Jesus has our back."

Off-topic classroom conversations re-assure these fifth-graders' faith.

"When we get off-topic in class, it's always about Jesus and spreading love," a fifth-grader said. "That's what we like. Miss Meyer (one of Trinity's fifth-grade teachers) always brings out the best in us and tries to get us to think and share about Jesus all the time."

Holy Week is still a week away.

How are you preparing?

GENEROSITY MESSAGE

Romans 8:1 – “There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.” This is the joy of the Gospel! There is no condemnation for us before the throne of God because in His love He has provided salvation for us in Christ. We have been set free. We are His children once again, and coheirs with Christ of all the blessings of heaven. If this does not make us thankful, nothing will!
