COMING TOGETHER

There were tears of joy.

There were goosebumps.

There were smiles and awe.

There was a buzz as Trinity celebrated its sanctuary re-entry last weekend.

"After 38 years of attending Trinity, this was truly an amazing experience," a Trinity congregational member shared. "So many goosebumps when I walked into the sanctuary."

It was a beautiful coming together — a welcome home celebration — that included church and school families, along with visitors from both near and far, soaking up the Gospel and singing His praise, in a bright, pristine, fresh, new-look worship space.

"It was an amazing day," a Trinity congregational member shared. "Very beautiful and awe-inspiring."

We are blessed.

Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also, for that is why I came out. (Mark 1:38)

There's more work to be done, teaching and preaching the Good News, continuing to be the light on the hill for all to see.

Gym improvements, which will include fixing the cracks in the walls, new paint and sound system repairs, and the installation of classroom windows in the north wing are part of the next phase of work.

We walk by faith.

SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY

What was all the Stink? Fifty years ago — February 19, 1974 — forty of the forty-five professors walked off the Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, Missouri, campus. Why? This event divided students who loved their professors; congregations were at each other's throats. Some didn't think it was a big deal. Was it a big deal? Let's explore history. Join Pastor Golter at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall on Feb. 25.

NEW BIBLE STUDY

How did the early church take the Good News to the world? We'll examine certain stories in the Book of Acts, looking at the story behind the story. Taught by Pastor Golter, beginning on March 10 at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

LENTEN DINNERS

Trinity will be having Lenten Dinners during the Wednesdays in Lent. The dinners begin at 5 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Listed are the ministries that will be serving dinners in the coming weeks:
