NEVER TIRE

Church office staffs are exhausted.

Organists and choirs need a break.

Pastors are ... nah, they have too much energy.

Holy Week and Easter Sunday have come and gone—so now what?

And as for you, brothers and sisters, never tire of doing what is good. (Jeremiah 31:25)

Fueled by Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection, the mission is to move forward - sharing the Gospel, both near and far.

There's no time for complacency or to be content.

In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the word the Lord Jesus himself said. "It's more blessed to give than to receive." (Acts 20:35)

Much has been done at Trinity in the past seven months.

There's more to come.

West parking lot resurfacing and installation of new windows in the north wing classrooms.

Preparations for special guests - including guest preachers and choirs - new Bible studies and a return trip to the Dominican Republic next fall.

The addition of new staff.

Jesus said: Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also, for that is why I came out. (Mark 1:38)

Let us go on, pushing forward.

Anxiety Part 2: God's Comfort for Anxious Thoughts by Lindsay Hausch will be the basis for the Bible study. We will be looking at defining what anxiety is, identifying the stressors in our life that causes anxiety, and how we respond to anxious moments.

When we face change, Jesus doesn't: Change is hard, but Christopher Kennedy reminds us in his book "Unfailing: God's Assurance for Times of Change" that God is with us every step of the way. Pastor Schilling will be leading the discussion.

What was Jesus thinking?: Jesus chose a most unlikely man to do His work, a Jew who grew up in a Gentile country. Additionally, Paul hated Christians. But God chooses the most unlikely, like you, to do His work. Discover the Risen Lord's strategy and intention through His use of St. Paul. Pastor Golter leads.
