COUNTDOWN IS ON

The countdown is on.

Preparations for the end of another school year at Trinity Lutheran are taking shape.

Time flies ... when you are having fun. There’s a lot to celebrate.

This past week, Trinity showered its faculty and staff with praise, thanks, games, and food. Just ask any staff if they have a Tiger in their pocket.

This weekend, Trinity will recognize its administrators— Bill Meyer and Deje Jensen – during our 8 a.m. worship service.

Later this month, Trinity will celebrate the retirement of Trinity second-grade teacher Lisa Shoumaker.

On May 30, Trinity will recognize its 18 eighth-graders during a graduation ceremony.

We are blessed. We celebrate ... and continue to push forward.

Currently, Trinity’s preschool, kindergarten, first, third and seventh grade classes are full for the 2024-25 school year.

God continues to open doors.

Inquiries – not only for the 2024-25 school year but beyond - regarding Trinity School are a daily occurrence.

This is a special place.

“Trinity is like entering heaven every day. We are greeted each morning with a warm and inviting welcome,” a first-grade family member shared.

Trinity offers three Sunday morning Bible studies. All studies begin at 9:30 a.m. Check out the back page of the Highlights for more details and study locations. Trinity’s Sunday School also begins at 9:30 am.
