SPIRITUAL REST

You might not know this, but Trinity’s teachers and administrators get tired.

I know, it’s hard to believe.

Where do they find their endurance? What’s their go-to?

Spiritual rest – being in God’s Word, in prayer, sharing Jesus with their students.

It’s their joy – their passion – their caffeine.

“To hear that God accepts us gives us endurance and lasting joy,” shared Pastor Golter.

For 155 years, Trinity Lutheran has been sharing the message – He accepts us.

By God’s grace, we are: Chosen, Growing, Proclaiming. Crowned.

It’s our spiritual rest.

On Jan. 27-31, Trinity is celebrating National Lutheran Schools Week. It’s a week-long opportunity for spiritual rest – through daily devotions, chapel service, giving back, children singing in church, and fellowshiping about God.

We find rest in Him – knowing our place in heaven is secure.

Jesus going to the cross was a have to – finding spiritual rest in Him is a get to.

For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16).

Yes, it’s true, Trinity’s teachers and administrators get tired, but they are refreshed by the sweet sound of the Gospel, shared with more than 400 students each day.

It’s spiritual rest.

GENEROSITY MESSAGE

I Cor. 12:16 – “And if the ear should say, ‘Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,’ that would not make it any less a part of the body.” The Lord has called each of us individually and given each of us unique gifts. He has made our whole lives holy in our Baptism and has called us to a life together in the church, His body. You are a part of that body, and that body needs you and the gifts the Lord has given you. This is your holy calling from the Lord.
